SUMMARY OF PARENTAL LEAVE

+ SUMMARY + ELIGIBILITY

PARENTAL LEAVE SUMMARY

+ US EMPLOYEES

To support your family, Endeavor offers benefits that allow you the flexibility to bond with your new child without the stress of lost pay. For this reason, eligible employees are offered generous leave benefits when a child is born or adopted into their family.

Who is eligible and what is offered?

U.S. employees, who have worked for the company for a minimum of 12 months (and 1,250 hours) from their date of hire, regardless of gender. For employees who have worked for less than 12 months, and less than 1,250 hours please refer to the parental leave policy.

Time Away From Work

- Birthing Parent – 18 weeks
- Non-Birthing Parent – 12 weeks

Compensation

- Birthing Parent – 18 weeks offset by state mandated wage benefits (CA & NY)
- Non-Birthing Parent – 12 weeks offset by state mandated wage benefits (CA & NY)

There are several examples of compensation for NY and CA-based employees on the next slides. For other locations please reach out to US_Benefits@endeavorco.com

This example assumes that the birthing parent is disabled by pregnancy for 6 weeks postpartum and takes bonding leave immediately after. SDI benefits can cover up to 4 weeks before birth and up to 8 weeks post partum, depending on the condition of pregnancy and delivery. PFL benefits can extend up to 8 weeks. SDI and PFL eligibility is determined by the state.*

Upon an approved FMLA (Family Medical Leave Act) event, Endeavor will pay your regular wages, but with an offset for any separately-approved SDI or PFL benefits you receive from the state, so that you will not receive more than 100% of your base pay. Compensation from the company will continue to be deposited on a semi-monthly basis into employee's direct deposit set up. Any eligible state benefits will be paid to you directly by the state.

PARENTAL LEAVE PROCESS

+ NEXT STEPS AND HOW TO INITIATE THE LEAVE PROCESS

THE PROCESS

+ NEXT STEPS – CA EMPLOYEES

Birthing Parents:

Eligible Endeavor employees are entitled to 18 weeks of Leave and full pay, offset by any wage replacement provided by the state of California's state disability insurance benefit (SDI) and paid family leave benefit (PFL).

- Step 1: Notify your manager and benefits in writing of your anticipated departure date and expected date of return as soon as possible, generally at least two months prior to the leave period, whenever possible.
- Step 2: Contact New York Life at 1-888-842-4462 (30 to 60 days prior to birth of your child) to initiate your FMLA leave (*).
- Step 3: Once the baby has arrived, call New York Life back at 1-888-842-4462 to inform New York Life of the birth of your child to finalize the FMLA process.
- Step 4: Register as a new user on the CA EDD website www.edd.ca.gov to initiate your disability with the state of California. This must be done no earlier than nine days after the first day of your baby's birth and no later than 49 days after your disability begins, or you may lose benefits. Once you have started your disability leave with the state of California, your additional Paid Family Leave will continue with the state. Reminder to send all copies of state disability payments to your benefits contact in order to offset your company pay.

(*) The FMLA allows eligible employees to take up to 12 work weeks of unpaid leave during any 12-month period to care for a new child, care for a seriously ill family member, or recover from a serious illness. The FMLA covers both public- and private-sector employees, but certain categories of employees, including elected officials and highly compensated employees, are excluded from the law or face certain limitations. In order to be eligible for FMLA leave, an employee must have worked for the employer for at least 12 months, have worked at least 1,250 hours over the past 12 months, and work for an employer with at least 50 employees within a 75-mile radius. Several states have passed laws providing additional family and medical leave protections for workers.

Non-Birthing Parents:

Eligible Endeavor employees are entitled to 12 weeks of Leave and full pay, offset by the state of California's paid family leave benefit (PFL).

- Step 1: Notify your manager and benefits in writing of your anticipated departure date and expected date of return as soon as possible, generally at least two months prior to the leave period, whenever possible.
- Step 2: Contact New York Life at 1-888-842-4462 (30 to 60 days prior to birth of your child) initiate your FMLA leave (*).
- Step 3 : Once the baby has arrived, call New York Life back at 1-888-842-4462 to inform them of the birth of your child to can finalize the FMLA process for you.
- Step 4: Register as a new user on the CA EDD website http://www.edd.ca.gov/ to initiate your paid family leave with the state of California. Reminder to send all copies of state paid family leave payments to your benefits contact in order to offset your company pay.

THE PROCESS

+ NEXT STEPS – NY EMPLOYEES

Birthing Parents:

Eligible Endeavor employees are entitled to 18 weeks of Leave and full pay, offset by the state of New York mandated disability and paid family leave benefits (NYPFL).

- Step 1: Notify your manager and benefits in writing of your anticipated departure date and expected date of return as soon as possible, generally at least two months prior to the leave period, whenever possible.
- Step 2: Contact New York Life at 1-888-842-4462 30 to 60 days prior to birth of your child to initiate your FMLA leave (*).
- Step 3: Once the baby has arrived call New York Life back at 1-888-842-4462 to inform New York Life of the birth of your child to finalize the FMLA, New York weekly disability, and the New York Paid Family Leave benefit for you.

(*) The FMLA allows eligible employees to take up to 12 work weeks of unpaid leave during any 12-month period to care for a new child, care for a seriously ill family member, or recover from a serious illness. HOW TO ENROLL YOUR NEWBORN

+WORKDAY

+ HOW TO ENROLL YOUR NEWBORN/ADOPTED CHILD ONTO INSURANCE

First, you'll need a verification letter such as a birth certificate, certificate from the hospital showing date of birth, or adoption certificate. You will have 30 days from the date of birth or date of adoption to add your dependent and make any changes to your plan. Log into Workday and follow the below instructions:

1. Click on the “Benefits Worklet”:  Select “Change Benefits”
 2. Choose “Birth/Adoption”
 - Benefit Event Date = the date of birth.
 - The “Submit Elections by” date will prepopulate once you add the event date in.
 3. Attach the document (birth certificate, adoption certificate, etc.) Click “Submit.”
 4. Click “Open” once the screen refreshes, then “Lets Get Started.” You can also find the elections saved in your Workday inbox for you to complete.
 5. You are now able to make your benefit elections. Once you have made your elections, click “Confirm” and “Continue.” Next, change coverage by electing either employee only, employee + spouse, employee + children or employee + family.
- Click “Add New Dependent” to create new dependent. You can also click on “Use Dependent as Beneficiary” if you would like this dependent to be a beneficiary for life insurance.

+ OPTION TO ENROLL/INCREASE FSA FOR TAX SAVINGS

Upon adding your child to benefits you will also have an opportunity to enroll in or increase your health care flexible spending election which can be used for eligible health expenses for you and your family. For more information, please view the digital Benefits Guide.

If your child will be enrolled in childcare and you make less than $130,000 per year, you will also have an opportunity to enroll in dependent care which allows you to pay for eligible childcare expenses using pre-tax dollars up to $5,000 per calendar year. Please view the digital Benefits Guide for more information.
